

United Liberation Movement for West Papua (ULMWP)
Legislative Council

1st ULMWP Congress Resolutions

Considering,

The struggle of West Papuan people to live in freedom, independence, sovereignty, peace and harmony on their ancestral lands is an inviolable human right.

Therefore, the struggle for freedom, independence, sovereignty, peace and harmony of life in the land of Papua, which politically began with the establishment of the Free Papua Organization (OPM), is a form of effort to achieve freedom, independence, sovereignty, peace and harmony of life in Papua. Organization (OPM) is a form of the Papuan people's efforts to defend their identity, dignity, and sovereignty against all forms of colonization.

Remembering,

After living under colonial rule so long, suffering without any guarantee of life safety in the hands of colonial powers, with no justice accompanied and inhuman treatments and destruction of harmony in life among all communities of beings, with the sacrifices of all resources: be it financial, humanity, identity, and dignity on the hands of colonial rulers, as results of colonialism and consequence of our struggle, our history has guided us into this historic event: "The First United Liberation Movement (ULMWP) Congress" as the most important stepping stone leading to our independence.

Noting,

1. The Constitution of the ULMWP Provisional Government.
2. The outcome of the ULMWP Summit in Port Vila, Vanuatu in 2023.
3. The outcome of the MSG Communique in Port Vila and MSG Caucus on West Papua in Rarotonga.

History has brought the Papuan nation to the gates of Independence.

In the names of Our Ancestors, in the names of all communities of beings, in the names of those who have gone, and in the names of those to come, by giving thanks to YAHWEH Elohim, the King of all creation, the Papuan peoples have successfully held the First United Liberation Movement for West Papua (ULMWP) Congress with the following resolutions:
